Small Group Journeys
More Authenticity & Flexibility Enrichment

Join this remarkable journey to explore Vietnam's stunning landscapes and rich cultures during the vibrant preparation for "Tet," the country's most significant holiday. Experience the excitement of locals as they shop, decorate homes, and cook traditional "Tet" foods, making this a memorable travel experience not to be missed.

Trip Summary

- Hanoi (3 Nights): Enjoy street food tours, visits to traditional flower gardens, and Tranh Khuc village, where you will participate in making "Banh Chung" (sticky rice square cakes) in preparation for Tet.
- Lan Ha Bay (2 Nights): Experience a multi-day cruise featuring kayaking, cave exploration, and cooking demonstrations.
- Hue (3 Nights): Immerse yourself in the "Cultural and Spiritual Heart" of Vietnam with visits to the Imperial Citadel. You will experience unique ceremonies honoring "Ông Táo" (the Kitchen God), making sweet cake with nuns, and enjoying private home dining.
- Hoi An (2 Nights): Enjoy a walking tour of the Old Town, participate in a lantern-releasing ceremony, and engage in rural cultural activities such as basket boat paddling.
- Can Tho (2 Nights): Explore the Mekong Delta, including traditional workshops on An Binh Island and a visit to the region's largest floating market.
- Saigon (2 Nights): Visit calligraphers for New Year greetings, a night street food tour, and attendance at the Nguyen Hue Street Flower Festival.
